

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XX.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1892.

NO. 67

DANVILLE.

—Mr. A. G. Daniel, of Atlanta, formerly of this place and Lancaster, was in town Monday.

—Hon. J. B. McCreary and Boyd Winchester spoke here Monday to large democratic audiences.

—Ernest Maltzravas, a well-known colored man, died Saturday of dropsy and was buried Sunday in the colored cemetery.

—Police Court cases Monday morning: Porter Markbury, drunk, $1 and costs; Rosa Nance, Kitty Williams, breach of the peace 12 days each in the workhouse; all negroes.

—Rev. George O. Barnes closed his meeting Sunday by a powerful sermon on the resurrection. To-night, Monday, and Tuesday he will deliver his lectures, in which he endeavours to prove that the English people are the descendants of the lost tribes of Israel. He has had a good and attentive audience during all the meeting.

—Mr. Harry Barbour, a banker of Helena, Montana, and a former student of Centre College, is here on a visit to old friends. Mr. R. L. Blakeman has returned from Knox county, where he has been for three months surveying land in the interest of the heirs of the late Hon. John Kincaid, once a leading lawyer of Stanford. Mr. Blakeman thinks his surveys show that said heirs are entitled to 5,000 acres of valuable mineral lands, now in the possession, or partly so, of other parties.

—Thomas Cecil and R. S. Russell were tried in the recorder's court Saturday for a breach of the peace, committed Saturday, the 5th inst. Mr. Russell was charged with having menaced Mr. Cecil with a pocket knife and a butcher knife and with strongly insinuating that Cecil had stolen a cow, and Mr. Cecil was charged with having shot at Mr. Russell twice with a pistol. Cecil was tried by the court and fined $51.80. Russell was tried by a jury and acquitted, although four of the jury held out for a time in favor of imposing a fine.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—John Young Rount, son of Rev. George Rount, was married last week to Miss Susie Skeene, of Versailles.

—Mr. James V. Clifford, formerly dispatcher at this place, but now of Cleburne, Texas, was married last week to Miss Laura Ellis, of Lomisville, who was for a time in the millinery business here. They will arrive in Stanford to-day and after spending a while with friends here will go to Texas to live. We extend congratulations and best wishes.

—A gang of roughs attacked a Salvation Army detachment at Wyandotte, Mich., and in a free fight that followed Lt. Carrie Low was probably fatally injured and four other persons seriously hurt.

—The telegraph operators and station agents of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe system went out on a strike because of a refusal to make $60 the monthly maximum pay and to make 12 hours a day's work, with pay for extra time.

—The political campaign in Tennessee seems to be waxing very warm. A joint discussion between Congressman Enloe and John H. McDowell, chairman of the third party State committee, at Conversville, resulted in a personal difficulty between the two.

—At Pittsburgh a cable car ran into a republican marching club, killing one man and injuring four others, two of whom will die. Threats were made to lynch Charles Gledhill, the motorman, but he escaped and was afterwards arrested at his home.

—The land case involving about 60,000 acres in Southwestern Virginia has been decided in the United States circuit court. This removes all barriers from the speedy development of the property and the residents of the Big Stone Gap region are much gratified over the decision.

—A tri-State democratic barbecue was given at Quincy, Ill. Democrats attending from Illinois, Missouri and Iowa. There were 30,000 people present, the speeches being delivered by the Hon. William M. Springer, Senator Mills, A. E. Stevenson, Gen. J. C. Black and Hon. Frank Lawler.

—At Monroeville, Ala., four negroes who murdered Richard L. Johnson and his daughter, Miss Josie, were hanged by a mob and their bodies filled with bullets. Another mob was coming to burn them at the stake. One of the negroes confessed that the girl was outraged before she was killed.

—California will send to the exhibition at Chicago a section of one of her famous big trees. The section will be 23 feet in diameter and 30 feet long. This will be divided into three parts, and these will be placed in their natural position, one above the other, and so arranged as to form something like a two-story house.

WATER, LIGHT & ICE.

Stanford Has Them in Purity and Brilliance.

A Full Description of the Three Plants,

JUST COMPLETED AT A COST OF $60,000.

The Water, Light and Ice plants are now in complete shape and running like clock works. Few of our people have a correct idea of the magnitude of the enterprises and in order that they may more fully understand and appreciate them and the benefits that will accrue from them, we will describe them in full from notes taken on a visit with Mr. B. J. C. Howe Friday night. To begin at the beginning: Last spring, the city council, after unsuccess and sundry failures, were fortunate enough to make a contract with the Howe Pump & Engine Co., through its president, Mr. B. J. C. Howe, to build a system of water works and an electric plant for a specified annual rental of so many fire plings and street lights and it has turned out that it made a master stroke. The firm has fulfilled every part of its contract and proved itself worthy of the good will of all our people. The first step of Mr. Howe, who has superintended the entire work, was to purchase of Mrs. E. T. Rochester 51 acres of land, including the famous Logan's Fort Spring, at a cost of $2,000. On this he erected a most substantial brick building for the machinery, 32x100 feet, with a boiler room 40x30 and separated so as to keep the dust and dirt from it. In this room are three boilers, two of 85 and one of 50 horse power, only one of which is used, the others being kept in reserve for emergencies. A smoke stack, 100 feet high and 31 feet in diameter, rises above the furnace and furnishes such a draft that the cheapest kind of coal and even slack can be used. Two large reservoirs, of a capacity of 120,000 and 250,000 gallons respectively, are constantly kept full. Pipes 3 and 4 inches in diameter are laid to Buffalo Spring, 650 feet away, and to Tate's Spring, 2,000 feet, and pumps are going all the time adding to the supply of the Fort Spring.

In the machinery room are two large pump engines of a capacity each of 500,000 gallons a day and these work automatically on the direct pressure system, using only the power to force the water to town and reach the highest point in it. Ordinarily the pressure is 50 pounds, but in case of fire it can be more than doubled. Only one of the pump engines is used, the other being ready to work in case it is needed. As compared with the stand pipe, the direct pressure system has many advantages. It forces the water fresh from the spring, with uniform pressure, while with the stand pipe system the water stands for days and becomes warm and stagnant. In winter, too, the trouble from freezing is very great, while with the direct pressure and underground pipes it is obviated.

There have been laid six miles of street mains and eight miles of service pipes. They run through nearly every street in town and to Rowland and Needmore, in each of which places are the plings and many citizens have water in their houses. The L. & N. has a contract to take 60,000 gallons a day and those in position to know say that it is the best water on the line, having very little lime or sediment. The engines have to be cleaned out less frequently since it has been used and there is a saving in various ways.

The road officials had thought seriously of moving their shops from Rowland to Livingston because of the scant water supply at the former place, but they now find that we can give them a better supply than either Livingston or Corbin, both of which have failed in this exceedingly dry spell, while on no day has all the water been used here. In fact, only the smaller reservoir has been used, the larger never having been called into service. This settles the question of the permanent location of the shops at Rowland and is of itself worth many times the cost of the water works to the town.

The L. & N. disburse over $10,000 a month to its hands there, the larger part of which finds its way to the cofers of our merchants. In addition to this the water system, coupled with a well equipped fire company, will reduce our insurance rates, as in Harrodsburg and other water works towns, and while it may slightly increase our taxes, they will still be lower than Danville, Lancaster and other towns without any of the advantages that we enjoy.

Compared with rates in other places, the water charges to individuals here are fully 50 per cent less, while the water is as good as the best. The supply, too, is such that we can offer inducements to manufacturers to locate here, which they are sure to do in the near future. Already business is looking up and buildings are being rapidly erected, a dozen or so being under construction.

and others ready for contract. There is no boom or attempt at a boom, but a steady and natural growth arising from such advantages.

The several tests that have been made of the force of the water have been very satisfactory. With light pressure it was thrown higher than the cupola of the court-house and came with such force that two stalwart bremen were unable to hold the nozzle. They will be better drilled after the fire apparatus, which has been ordered, arrives, when a test will be made both of the water force and the skill of the fire fighters, a large company of whom, under Chief I. Mack Bruce, has been organized.

The company has also placed one of the finest electric light plants in the State, furnishing either arc or incandescent lights at the lowest possible rates. An 85-horse power engine drives the two dynamos, one of which has a capacity of 30 arc lights of 1,200 candle power and the other a capacity of 600 16 candle power incandescents. At present it is thought that there will be insufficient for the demand and another will be purchased as soon as needed. The machinery of this plant is the latest and best made and all the appliances necessary to a complete system are in place. The engine is run by steam from the same boiler that runs the pump engines and the ice machinery, thereby materially reducing the cost and enabling the company to furnish lights to our citizens at nearly 50 per cent less than in other towns. The lights are unusually bright and compare more favorably with Louisville and Lexington. The machinery is started at 8:30 a.m. and runs till after sunrise. The incandescents can be used all night, the commercial arcs till 10 p.m., except on Saturday when they go till midnight. The street arcs are run till 15 minutes after the arrival of the Louisville train, when they are shut off till 15 minutes before the arrival of the north bound train and then run an hour. The reason that they are not lighted all night is that the carbon is only good for eight hours. The management is taking great pains to avoid the flickering, irregular light that is so annoying in other places and it is succeeding to a great extent.

In addition to these plants, the company has put in an ice plant of a daily capacity of seven tons. Since its purchase a number of the very latest improvements have been added and it is now the most complete anywhere. There are four cold storage rooms of 6,400 cubic feet, in which the ice can be stored, but so far there has been no need for them. The ice is absolutely pure. The water is the best in the country in the first place and all of it is distilled before being used. The L. & N. has contracted to get its ice from the company next year and there is every indication that its full capacity will be taxed next season. The plant has reduced the retail price of ice one-half and the wholesale 30 per cent, besides giving us better and purer ice.

The three plants have cost in the aggregate $60,000 and in view of the large expenditure and the very low rate that the products are furnished, it is hoped that our citizens will not only lend their aid to advancing the interests of the company, but patronize it liberally. It is a big thing for Stanford and ought to be, as indeed it is, fully appreciated. The Howe Pump & Engine Co., of Indianapolis, Ind., owns all the stock but $10,000, which is owned locally, and upon which there is a guarantee of 7 per cent interest yearly. Of course that company will practically manage the concern, though at present all the officers are located here, Col. W. G. Welch being president, A. R. Penny treasurer and J. W. Hayden secretary and general manager. The whole will be under the supervision of Mr. Howe, who is not only a first-class business man, but a clever and agreeable man, who has completed this great work without trouble or friction with anybody. It was a big day for Stanford when the city council contracted with him and each day will find it nearer the realization of the hopes of the most sanguine citizen. Stanford has at last awakened from its Rip Van Winkle sleep and its citizens are determined to make it a city of the importance that its location, natural and artificial advantages, entitle it to be.

—Accounts of the great Colorado storm with snow five feet deep on the level and drifted to a depth of 18 feet, suggests a striking contrast with the mild, warm, bright weather which we have enjoyed in this region day after day, for weeks. Suffering in the storm regions has been great and attended with loss of life, human and brute.

—Since her return from the South Mrs. Lease has thrown up the third party, which they are sure to do in the near future. Already business is looking up and buildings are being rapidly erected, a dozen or so being under construction.

—The betting in New York city is ten to seven and a half in favor of the democratic national ticket.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - OCTOBER 18, 1892

W. P. WALTON.

SIX : PAGES.
EVERY FRIDAY.

SENATOR BRECKINRIDGE and A. K. Denny, Esq., spoke at Crab Orchard Saturday and the former spent Sunday here. In response to a question of his vote against the re-enactment of the election bill, the Senator said: "I voted against it because, in the first place, I regard it as entirely unnecessary, it having been constitutionally passed before. Then it prescribes ex post facto penalties and has the absurdity of ordering things to be done in August and other dates past, all of which would render it nugatory as well as unconstitutional. Had the bill been re-enacted as soon as we went back in extraordinary session, I should have voted for it, without question, but at this date, in the shape that it is in, its passage is a reflection on the intelligence of any legislative body." We are glad to give the Senator's side of the case, as we like him too well to want to see him dig his political grave, as without this explanation he seemed to be fast doing.

The apathy of the democrats in this county is becoming alarming and unless something is done a very tight vote will be polled. The republicans, on the other hand, are organizing nightly and will as usual, poll their full strength. We are on the eve of a very important election and we beg of our friends to bestir themselves. Lincoln county must give Cleveland, McCreary, Saulsley and Owsley 500 majority or more and it will if the democrats will wake up. It is just three weeks from the election, but much can be done in that time and we hope every democrat will feel it encomitant upon him to go to work.

The republican convention at Danville nominated Capt. Wm. Herndon for circuit judge, but made no nomination for commonwealth's attorney, so our fortunate young townsmen, Mr. John Sam Owsley, Jr., will be accorded another walk-over. In the other race Judge Saulsley will have a practical walk-over if every democrat does his duty. Herndon's only hope lies in democratic disaffection and the Kangaroo ballot, but he'll be as much mistaken as if he had burned his shirt.

The board of control of the World's Fair invited Hon. Henry Watterson, the distinguished editor of the Courier-Journal, to deliver the dedicatory address on the 21st and he has accepted. The selection is a most happy one. Mr. Watterson may be lacking in the arts of the finished orator, but what he will say will have more meat in it than a dozen such addresses by so called silver tongues like Breckinridge and Daniel.

The Somerset Republican will not be allowed to sleep the sleep that knows no waking. Mr. A. A. Lewis has resumed charge and in a few weeks will make it a semi-weekly. As he resigned a $4 a day government job to return to his mutton, he appears to have that confidence in the future of the paper, which we hope he will realize.

HON. WAYNE McVEAGH, a member of Garfield's cabinet, made a rousing speech for Cleveland and tariff reform in Philadelphia Saturday. He was particularly severe on his former party and charged it with all kinds of corruption and venality. He says moreover that Harrison's election was purchased, over $500,000 being used in Indiana alone.

In ex cabinet officers in the republican party declare that they will vote for Cleveland and three more say they will not vote for Harrison. Prominent republicans all over the country are abandoning the party of fraud and corruption and all signs point to the election of Cleveland and Stevenson.

CARNEGIE knows which side his bread is buttered. He has contributed $100,000 to the republican campaign fund in order that he may be further protected and able to further grind his employees. The election of Harrison means many more millions to him taken from the wages of honest labor.

THE Legislature is in a worse fix than ever. The two houses are at cross questions on everything and even conference committees can not untangle the skein of difficulties. Both bodies ought to acknowledge their incompetency and come home beseeching the pardon of an outraged constituency.

JUDGE MORROW says the democratic Legislature deserves the thanks of the people for giving them such a fair and impartial election law. There is no question in his mind of the constitutionality of its passage, or that in any event will the vote under it be questioned.

INSTEAD of attending Lord Tennyson's funeral the Prince of Wales went to the horse races and for it he is being soundly abused by his subjects. The prince is only a human after all, and finds very naturally more fun at a race course than in the solemn cortage of a funeral.

HON. THOMAS C. BELL and John W. Hughes, of Mercer, spoke here yesterday to a good audience which listened attentively to their clear exposition of the issues of the campaign. Both are thoroughly posted and their speeches were very effective. In the name of the democrats of Lincoln we extend to the gentlemen our heartfelt thanks for their efforts in the good cause.

The officers here have received samples of the ballots for the coming election, marked "for educational purposes only." A rooster is the emblem chosen by the democracy, an eagle by the republicans, a plow and hammer by the people's party and a Phoenix by the prohibitionists.

NEWSY NOTES.

—Chicago parties have bought the French Lick Springs property in Indiana for $500,000.

—Cleveland finished first in the base ball games and Louisville 9th, losing 52 out of 75 games.

—Six Pennsylvania miners died after drinking beer from a keg in which lay a dead copperhead snake.

—Mr. Blaine declares he is not in politics any longer and has declined to take an active part in the campaign.

—The Kentucky veterans of the Mexican war will meet at Frankfort Nov. 15. A president and secretary will be elected.

—Near Leavenworth, Kas., a man gulped down 21 glasses of whisky and died in 15 minutes, his brain being cooked.

—Five men and four race horses were killed in a freight collision near New London, O. The horses were valued at $15,000.

—Senator Daniel declines the invitation extended to him to deliver an oration at the dedication of the World's Fair buildings.

—At Dixon Edward Herron waylaid and mortally wounded John Winston, later, while resisting arrest, Herron was shot twice and soon died.

—A vine in a watermelon patch in Reno county, Kas., has produced this year 13 watermelons, the smallest of which weighed 35 pounds.

—The Pennsylvania troops have all been withdrawn from Homestead. The military protection of the Carnegie works has cost the State $600,000.

—The domestic money order service has been ordered established in 1,847 4th-class post-offices throughout the country, beginning yesterday.

—G. W. Catron fell from the roof of the South Boston Iron Works, at Middletown, 57 feet, and drove his ankle bones up to his knees. He will die.

—There is fat man's club in Calaway county. It is composed of 12 members—all democrats. The heaviest man weighs 200 pounds and the lightest 210 pounds.

—Near Boise City, Idaho, the vigilantes attacked eight men who had made it their business to plunder, rob and kill, and wiped them out of existence by fire and lead.

—Reports from democratic headquarters in Chicago state that a thorough canvass of Illinois shows a decided democratic majority for both State and National tickets.

—The Lexington Water Works Company has brought suit against B. J. Tracy for $25,000 for depositing manure in such a way as to defile the reservoir and render it unfit for use.

—Additional evidence has appeared to substantiate the statement recently made that a large republican element in Indiana will vote for the State republican ticket, but will cut Harrison.

—B. J. Treacy, the horseman, tried to whip S. A. Charles, the superintendent of the Lexington water works, for snuffing him for damaging the water. Charles drew a pistol and both were arrested.

—The old arsenal in which John Brown made his last fight at Hagerstown in 1859, has been transplanted to Chicago. Captain Donovan, who was with Brown during the raid, will lecture on it.

—Railroads in Colorado are blocked by snow, which is from three to seven feet deep in the cuts. Much damage was done in Denver by the rain, sleet and wind storm, which lasted for several days.

—Under the new revenue law for the coming year the assessor will begin his labors Nov. 15, and will have until Feb. 15 to complete the work. The board of supervisors will meet the 1st Monday in March.

—By an explosion of gas in the Sterling colliery at Shamokin, Pa., one man was killed, four were injured and eight others were entombed. Three of the latter have been rescued and they will probably die.

—The survivors of the Dalton gang threaten to attack Coffeyville, Kan., in order to wreak revenge for the killing of their brother bandits. It is also said they will go to Independence and attempt to rescue Emmet Dalton.

—Dr. D. W. Vories, post-master of New Albany under Gen. Grant, adds another to the long list of heretofore staunch Indiana republicans who find that they cannot conscientiously support President Harrison for re-election.

—After the great military parade in New York, Wednesday, the Columbus monument was unveiled in Central park with appropriate ceremonies. At night the display of fireworks, etc., was one the equal of which was seldom if ever seen anywhere.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—The Somerset Republican reports sales of two lots of fat cattle at $10 to $15.

—M. F. Elkin bought of C. M. Spooner 10 shoats at 4 cents and one head of butcher stuff at 2 cents.

—The Harrodsburg Democrat reports sales of 2 car loads of hogst at 4 to 4 1/2 and a lot of stock cattle at 3 cents.

—The Lexington running races began Saturday and will continue till the 25th with large purses and big races each day.

—C. J. Hamlin bought of J. H. Thayer, America, by Onward, dam by Dictator, for $15,000. He has a record of 2:15.

—A. H. Rice bought in the Hubble vicinity 24 head of extra good butcher cattle at 2 to 2 1/2 cents and a lot of shippers at $3 cents.

—William Moreland bought of various parties in this county 20 extra feeders at $3 and sold to Samuel Weihl, of Lexington, 26,000 pound cattle at $25.

—J. B. Embry bought for Nelson Morris, of Chicago, 32 export cattle of C. M. Jones at 4 1/2; of J. A. & S. T. Harris 48 head of same at 4 1/2 and 14 head at 4.

—James L. Yantis has sold to Grove Kennedy his farm on the Crab Orchard and Lancaster pike, three miles from the former place, for $6,000. It contains 200 acres.

—Strayed or stolen, a little brown mare from the hitching post at Smith Embry's shop. Any information of her will be thankfully received. J. P. Bush, Sheriff.

—W. M. McAfee has rented to Jeff D. Jones his farm—the old Crow place—containing 102 acres, next year for $400. Mr. McAfee will move back to his farm in Missouri.

—In addition to the jack bought at Bright's sale for $505, Ben B. McRoberts, of Indiana, bought of Hirian Hatt a standard-bred horse for $200. He will take a car load of fine stock back with him.

—William Moreland bought for Poor & Embry 13,000-pound sloop cattle of John Murphy at 2 1/2; of Mrs. Mary Matheny 6 at same price; of W. P. Grimes 22 extra good of same at 2 1/2; of Silas Anderson 15 at 2 1/2 and of W. A. Adams 12 at 2 1/2.

—Robert Tarr sold 35 2-year-old miles to a Pennsylvania man at $95. Charlton Alexander bought 100 cattle, averaging 1,250 pounds, at $3 and $3 premium on the head. Sales of a lot of export cattle at 4 1/2 are also reported in the Paris Kentuckian.

—The farm of the late R. R. Gentry, lying on the Rush Branch turnpike and containing 305 acres, sold at auction Saturday to Messrs. B. R., C. E., J. B. and Richard Gentry at $90. There was a fair crowd, considering that the sale was only of realty, and bidding was spirited.

—The drought in the central part of the country is becoming serious. Dust on the highways is disagreeably deep. Fall crops are suffering. In numerous regions farmers are experiencing great difficulty in providing water for their live stock. Forest and meadow fires are of frequent occurrence and in many instances are of great destructiveness.

—W. E. McAfee, of this county, has sold to an agent of Marcus Daley the 14-year-old mare Rapidian, by Dictator, dam Madame Healy, by Edwin Forest, for $8,000. She is bred exactly like the dam of Nancy Hanks and produced the trotters Lockhart, 2:13, and Capt. Mac, 2:29. She is now at Dubuque, where she was sent to be bred to Nutwood.

—Pony Beazley, of Garrard county, sold to Embry, agent for Nelson Morris, Chicago, 50 fat cattle, averaging 1,600 pounds, at $4. Same bought of J. T. Hugney 40 head of 1,500-pound cattle at 4 1/2, and from Richard Cobb 41 averaging 1,500 pounds at 4 1/2. Mrs. M. B. Cook has sold to S. L. Cook her farm of 70 acres, on the Stanford pike 3 1/2 miles from town at $10. Advocate.

—Under the new revenue law for the coming year the assessor will begin his labors Nov. 15, and will have until Feb. 15 to complete the work. The board of supervisors will meet the 1st Monday in March.

—At the sale of T. B. Bright in Garrard the jack and jennet stock was first offered.

—There were 18 sold at an aggregate of $5,200 for the lot. The jacks ran from $100 to $505, the last going to B. B. McRoberts, of Indiana; the jennets sold at prices ranging from $105 to $155.

—Stallions sold as follows: Lucifer, to James Herring, $150; Silver Time, John Woods, $100; J. K., Smith Baughman, of Lincoln, $300; Marcella, trotting mare, Capt. Dave Logan, Boyle, $250; Florence J., bay mare, Leonard Johnson, Mercer, $160; 18 head other horses, $14 to $155 per head. Mules, 24 yearlings at $63 25.—Record-Homestead.

—Our correspondents, with the honorable exception of the old reliable at Danville, have treated us quite shabbily this issue, but it will be observed that we appear all the same. You can't keep a stamping man down.

—Under the new revenue law for the coming year the assessor will begin his labors Nov. 15, and will have until Feb. 15 to complete the work. The board of supervisors will meet the 1st Monday in March.

—At the sale of T. B. Bright in Garrard the jack and jennet stock was first offered.

—There were 18 sold at an aggregate of $5,200 for the lot. The jacks ran from $100 to $505, the last going to B. B. McRoberts, of Indiana; the jennets sold at prices ranging from $105 to $155.

—There seems to be more snarlers in Middlesboro than anywhere. The News tells of three sharpers from a baker to a candlestick maker, who victimized the people there last week and got off with their few remaining dollars. They don't seem to learn much by experience there, but bite at every bait thrown to them.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mrs. R. WILLIAMS has returned from a visit to Harrodsburg.

JAMES C. COLEMAN, the Middlesboro lumber dealer, was in town Friday.

Mrs. W. H. WREN continues very ill. Dr. John M. Craig is convalescent.

Mrs. BAILEY, of Lexington, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Lou Shanks.

DR. ANDREW SEARgent, of Hopkinsville, is visiting his brother, Mr. Hugh Sargent.

Mrs. MATTIE NEWCOMB, of Mt. Vernon, was here the guest of the Misses Vanover.

Mrs. T. S. BENSON, our Middleburg scribe, was here Saturday, just recovered from a spell of sickness.

Mrs. GEORGE WRAY, after a delightful visit to relatives in Bloomington, Ill., returned home yesterday.

Mrs. J. C. FLORNSON, master of trains on the K. C. G. & L., was here last week looking after his interests.

Mrs. BERNICE B. McROBERTS, of Elizabeth, Ind., is here buying fine horses and shaking hands with old friends.

Mrs. AILEEN BALLON and Mrs. Hardwick, who have been guests of Mrs. Joseph Ballon, returned to Bardsdale yesterday.

Judge J. M. BARNETT, of Pulaski, spent several days with Mr. J. H. McAlister, while he was here disposing of some cattle.

MISSES SALLIE COOK and Lou Hocker, of Hustonville, have been the guests of their sisters, Mrs. E. B. Cooper and Mrs. E. C. Walton.

Mr. W. M. DODDING, of Stanford, has been in the city for the past 10 days organizing a flour mill company.—Mid-Weeks News.

W. H. SMITH and J. W. CANNON, of Derrick Warner Lodge, No. 56, started yesterday to the grand lodge meeting of the Masons in Louisville today. G. L. Penny, of Lincoln Lodge, No. 60, will go to-night.

MISS HELEN REED, after spending the vacation at her home in Hustonville, has returned to Somerset and is assisting Mrs. Litton in her millinery department. Miss Belle Bogle, the fashionista dressmaker, was visiting her home at Hustonville last Sunday.—Somerset Republican.

CITY AND VICINITY.

DWELLING FOR RENT. Mrs. N. A. Tye.

WANTED.—Nice, clean, clever seed—about 500 bushels. B. K. & W. H. Warren.

SENSIBLE.—A half dozen or more colored men have joined the McCrory Democratic Club at Richmond.

GENTLEMEN WHO CONSULT THEIR OWN INTEREST WILL EXAMINE OUR STOCK OF SHOES, HATS, SHIRTS, UNDERWEAR, &c. SEVERANCE & SON.

JOHN McCREADY will speak here next Saturday at 1 o'clock, when, of course, the court-house will be filled with his admiring constituency.

Mrs. MAYME LYNX was "stormed" Friday night by a dozen or more couples from town, who greatly enjoyed the young lady's hospitality till late hour.

If you want to go to Chicago come and buy your outfit from us this week. Low prices for ladies' Exposition cloaks, gents' Exposition suits and ladies' Exposition dresses. J. S. Hughes.

The Misses Beazley have rented the cottage they live in at Capt. W. H. Kirby, of the K. C. and Miss Maye Varnon has rented the residence now occupied by Dr. J. K. Varnadale to Mr. A. G. Eastland.

The county court, after hearing the testimony, renewed Mrs. Betty Pennybacker's tavern license, with the privilege of retailing liquors at Kingsville. A protest, signed by 31 out of the 40 voters of the town, was presented, but after hearing that a drug store would open up for the purpose of filling "prescriptions," quite a number of the signers withdrew their names.

CORN Shock twine at McKinney Bros.

TO LOAN.—$1,000 on real estate security. Address Box 10, Lancaster, Ky.

New California Dried Peaches, Apricots and Prunes at A. A. Warren's.

Two. Prof. Stonewall Jackson william has another child at his house—a girl this time.

HENRY BOSS, a University negro, was fined $10 in Squire John Bailey's court for whipping his wife, and not having the wherewithal to liquidate, he was remanded to jail.

The election results, annexes and ballot boxes to the amount of a car-load have arrived and cost with freight about $300. The kangaroo ballot system comes very high, but its advocates say we will get our money's worth.

The L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets to the Dedication Ceremonies of the World's Fair buildings, Chicago, at $8 89 for the round trip from Stanford. Tickets will be on sale from the 16th to the 19th and be good for return passage till the 31st.

The superintendent, W. E. McClary, received the first of the month $5,845 for common school teachers, but up to this time he has only disbursed $1,000. Most of the teachers are well enough heeled, it seems, not to be in a hurry for their hire.

It is not likely the trial of Ex-Marshal W. T. Saunders, for the murder of Judge Egbert, will occur this month. Col. W. H. Bradley, one of his lawyers, is in New York and the case having occupied much of the time of the last two coming, may have to give away this time.

CORONER EGERTON.—Capt. Joseph Egerton, of Fort Robinson, Neb., will be here in November for the purpose of enlisting young colored men for the 9th U. S. Cavalry. This is a chance for the hazy and profligate to get an easy birth and be paid and supported by the government.

The members of the Christian church at Hustonville are raising money with which to build a parsonage for their pastor, Elder W. L. Williams, who has served them so faithfully and long. Over $600 has been already raised and quite a number of the most liberal members have not donated.

AT 2 P. M. to-day Capt. Boyd Winchester, ex-congressman and Cleveland's Minister to Switzerland, will address the people of Lincoln at the Court-house on the issues of the campaign. He is thoroughly posted on every important question and his speech will be worth any body's time to listen to.

The distinguished lawyer and statesman, Hon. Joshua S. Hays, U. S. claim agent and general collector, has laid on our table a chestnut stem on which there are 1200, all well filled. Mr. Hays regards this as a lusus nature of a most wonderful character since three on a stem is the highest number he has ever seen before.

SOME rooster at Lancaster is working the Louisville Times and Post with news from this county, pilfered from this paper and stale by the time it gets to the city via the side-tracked town. Both of the papers named have correspondents here, who send any matter telegraphing and the officious rooster at least will please continue him self to his own holliewick.

SEVERELY BURNED.—The Courier-Journal says that J. W. Lasley fell from the second story of the Wathen distillery and received injuries from which he may not recover. His right leg was torn open from the knee to the thigh. The bone was fractured in several places. His back was also seriously injured. Mr. Lasley is a native of this county and a brother of L. M. Lasley, of this place.

IT WASN'T A HOT ONE.—Ed Brown, colored, who bears a rather unsavory reputation when the question of honesty is considered, attempted to steal a stove out of the waiting room at the depot Friday night. Berney Fish, who sleeps in the depot, heard a noise and on going to where the sound emanated he saw a man leaving in hot haste. He recognized him as Ed Brown, as did George Carpenter, who saw him running away. Ed has left town and if he will remain there will be no steps taken to bring him back for trial.

MISS MAYME LYNX was "stormed" Friday night by a dozen or more couples from town, who greatly enjoyed the young lady's hospitality till late hour.

If you want to go to Chicago come and buy your outfit from us this week. Low prices for ladies' Exposition cloaks, gents' Exposition suits and ladies' Exposition dresses. J. S. Hughes.

A ROARING democratic meeting will be held at Ottenheim on Saturday next, 22, when speeches will be made by Hon. C. Neumeyer, of Louisville, inerman, and by Col. T. P. Hill, Judge M. C. Sankey, A. K. Denny, W. H. Miller and perhaps others, in English. A big crowd on a big democratic day is promised and the session will be an enjoyable one. The meeting is sanctioned by the county committee and is under the direction of Messrs. W. H. Miller and James H. Carter, the veteran democratic committee-man of Hall's Gap, who will make it one of the great events of the county canvass.

The county court, after hearing the testimony, renewed Mrs. Betty Pennybacker's tavern license, with the privilege of retailing liquors at Kingsville. A protest, signed by 31 out of the 40 voters of the town, was presented, but after hearing that a drug store would open up for the purpose of filling "prescriptions," quite a number of the signers withdrew their names.

TAKE your old silver to Danks, the jeweler, and have it made into spoons, etc.

THE Columbus day celebration and picnic by the common schools of that section will be at Waynesburg instead of Kingsville, next Friday.

JAMES BAGHMAN, colored, confessed to having stolen a lot of turkeys from Mrs. Eliza Engleman and was given 30 days in jail by Magistrate George P. Bright.

CENTRAL Kentucky got all the officers in the grand lodge and the next place of meeting too, Lexington having been chosen for the latter. Mr. A. C. Sino got 130 votes for grand warden, but was beaten by a Richmond man.

The editor of the Barboursville Herald is another exemplification of the old adage "convince a man against his will and he'll be of the same opinion still." He stuck to it that it was cowardice and not discretion which kept the republicans from nominating a candidate against Gov. McCrory. Well, have it your way and treat. All the same there will be no candidate, unless the old still hoot tactic, so popular with the repubicans is resorted to.

SPEAKING AT MCKINNEY.—George E. Stone, of Liberty, spoke at McKinney last Saturday to a large assembly of the people of the West End. He illustrated by a black board diagram the method of voting by the Australian ballot and then discussed the protective tariff one hour and a half. His argument was pronounced one of the most learned and forcible ever delivered in the county and for detaining Miss Woods, and an appeal was taken. A suit, which created a great sensation, was that of W. T. Gossett against Dr. E. R. Rice, for charging him with salomy. The doctor plead justification and produced the woman who swore she saw the act, but the jury mulled him in $5,000 and costs. Hon. R. C. Warren was of counsel for the defendant. The authorities have engaged a noted Cincinnati detective to hunt down Anderson, the assassin of Editor Rucker, but not much of a clue has so far been found.

A DASTARDLY DEED.—Sunday night a man got on passenger train No. 25 at Corbin with a ticket for Williamsburg, after raising a row with the agent for not selling him one to Pleasant View, where he wanted to get oil. He was on the platform between the ladies' car and the sleeper, when Capt. Harry Chatburn, conductor, came along. He asked him to let him off at Pleasant View and when he refused he struck the conductor a savage blow on the head with a pair of brass knucks, knocking him from the train as it ran at 40 miles an hour. No one saw the act and the conductor was not missed for some time, when an engine was sent back for him. He was found in an unconscious condition and was so at last accounts, we learn from Chief Dispatcher W. F. Sheridan, who says the chances are against his recovery. Dr. J. F. Peyton, the company's physician, went to Corbin yesterday to attend him. No one seems to know who the scoundrel is, but nothing will be left undone to bring him to justice and the rope if need be.

A TRIBBLE CHARGE.—Last issue we published an item saying that W. Curtis Egbert was missing from his store in Louisville and that foul play was suspected. It turns out that he had attempted to rob his employers, J. Bacon & Sons and a charge of attempted burglary was preferred against him. The Post says that when the store was opened on Monday morning, the safe was found to be defaced with powder burns and chisel marks, but it had resisted the attempts of the world-beholder to open it. No thought of guilt was had in connection with any employee of the house until Egbert failed to put in an appearance as usual. Then suspicion was directed to him and the police were notified. Meanwhile inquiries from the young man's mother, who lives at Crab Orchard, as to her son's whereabouts confirmed the suspicions. He was thought to be an exemplary young man and was considered thoroughly honest by his employers. He was last seen at the Farmers' Home on Sunday, where he boarded. He slept at the store and evidently worked upon the safe during Sunday morning or afternoon, as the burglar alarm attached prevented any attempt at night. His mother is very much distressed over the disappearance of her son, but does not know the disgrace that attaches to it. As is known, Mr. Egbert is a son of the late Judge Egbert, killed at Crab Orchard by Marshal Saunders. His poor mother, who has suffered more than any ten women, is inconsolable, but cannot believe her only boy guilty of such an act.

56-1100 Olive Street, Kansas City, Mo.

THE weather continues warm and dry, with no rain in sight. Stock water is very scarce and many have to haul it, in some instances for miles.

THE lecture of Rev. Wallace Tharp, at the Christian church, next Thursday night, promises to be well attended. Several young ladies are selling tickets and they never fail to make the man they tackle buy. The proceeds are for a good cause and if Mr. Tharp prove us entertaining a lecturer as he is regarded as a preacher it will be well worth patronizing. Misses Sue Baghman and Nora Moreland had sold about $20 worth of tickets each to last evening.

THE Right KING of a DEMOCRAT.—Judge B. J. Breckinridge spoke at Crab Orchard last Saturday in behalf of the principles of the democratic party and especially in advocacy of the election of Judge Sankey. As was to be expected, his speech was strong, fervid and instructive. If all democrats were as loyal to party organization and as devoted to the success of party principles as Judge Breckinridge we would be in better shape. His conduct in this campaign is just admirable, and nothing short of it.

SOMERSET COURT.—Judge Morrow tells us that there were seven penitentiary convictions at his late court in Somerset in terms of two years to two years and ten months. He refused a new trial to Ex-Mayor Higgins, who got two years for detaining Miss Woods, and an appeal was taken. A suit, which created a great sensation, was that of W. T. Gossett against Dr. E. R. Rice, for charging him with salomy. The doctor plead justification and produced the woman who swore she saw the act, but the jury mulled him in $5,000 and costs.

WHAT I LIVE FOR.

I live for those that love me,
For those I know are true,
For the heaven that smiles above me,
And awaits my spirit, too;
For all human ties that bind me,
For the task my God assigned me,
For the bright hopes left behind me,
And the good that I can do.

I live to learn their story,
Who've suffered for my sake—
To emulate their glory,
And follow in their wake;
Bards, martyrs, patriots, sages,
The noble of all ages,
Whose deeds crown History's pages,
And time's great volume make.

I live to half that season
My gifted mind to toold,
When man shall live by reason,
And not alone for gold;
When man to man united,
And every wrong thing righted,
The whole world shall be lighted,
As Eden was of old.

I live to hold communion
With all that is divine—
To feel that there is union
Twixt Nature's head and mine;
To profit by affliction,
Reap truth from deeds of fiction,
Grow wiser from conviction—
Fulfilling God's design.

I live for those that love me,
For those that know me true,
For the heaven that smiles above me,
And awaits my spirit, too;
For the wrongs that need resistance,
For the cause that needs assistance,
For the future in the distance,
And the good that I can do.

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

The Baptist church is yet without a pastor and it seems likely to remain so.

Rev. John Thomas has been assigned work at Woodbine and has moved thither.

Thos. Miller has rented rooms from Mrs. Mary Fogle and has gone to house-keeping.

The Law and Order League, which was organized here some 12 months ago, seems to be dead or sleeping. It did good work in ridding the country of "blind tigers," but its organization seems to have been for that purpose only, as we hear of frequent violations of the laws in our county, which seem to go unnoticed by the order. If the league was formed for no other purpose than to suppress the liquor traffic then it is not what its name indicates.

As Rev. J. H. Bristow was on his way to Phil. Tuesday, the 11th inst., he discovered a lot of hogs eating something by the roadside. He got off his horse and to his horror found it to be an infant. He drove the hogs away and picked up what remained of it and carried it to Liberty. It turns out that a Miss Hogue had given birth to it and had thrown it to the hogs to be devoured by them, either to hide her shame or to rid herself of the responsibility of it. It is reported that the young lady came to Mr. James Spears, near Yosemite, that evening and staid all night, since which time she has not been heard of. It is not often that lynch law is resorted to in this county, but it is safe to say that, should she be caught, that it will be practiced upon her.

Woodie Dunlap, who at first thought he wanted to be republican elector-at-large from the State, has taken a second thought on the subject. Woodie discovered that he must either resign his gauership or his electorship, and, acting on the wise principle that a toot in the mouth is worth two or three in the future, he promptly swung on to the first and let the last go. Mr. Dunlap's discretion is to be admired; but when March 4th arrives Woodie will march forth just the same.—Glasgow Times.

SWAPPING THE DEVIL FOR THE WITCH—Halifax, N. S., sent to Sable Island, N. S., some time ago, a number of cats to destroy the rats, which were killing the rabbits. The cats, tired of destroying rats, played and havoc among the rabbits, and at last, becoming very numerous a number of foxes were sent to drive the cats out. The foxes not only killed the rabbits, but all the young birds. The fact has been brought to the notice of the government, with a view of having the foxes cleared off the island.

According to the census report, the whole number of males in the United States in 1880 was 32,067,880, and the whole number of females 30,554,370. For the United States as a whole, therefore there are for every 100,000 males 95,280 females in 1880.

The Tariff Tax.

Whenever a man, woman or child has a dollar to expend for any manufactured article of comfort or necessity, an invisible tax gatherer stands beside the seller of the goods and now demands of the purchaser 47 cents of that dollar as a tribute to the protected manufacturer of like goods. The purchasing power of the dollar is thus reduced to 53 cents. The effect of this proceeding is to reduce the actual available income of a wage-earner, who is paid $2 per day, to $1.04. In the face of this fact, the republican party declares that a protective tariff tax, operating as above stated, increases the wages, and consequently, the prosperity of the laboring man. A tariff tax is necessary to meet the expenses of the government, but it is not necessary that this tax should exceed the requirements of the government, economically administered, in order that a special class of monopolists may be enriched. Therefore, it is wrong to tax the poor man 47 cents on every dollar of his wages, for the sake of protection to monopoly, when 30 cents would be sufficient for revenue to meet the expenses of the government. This is the tariff issue, and all there is in it, which directly concerns the poor man.—Frankfort Capital.

The Force Bill.

Carl Shurtliff, formerly a distinguished republican, thus speaks of the force bill. "The inevitable effect of the enactment of the force bill, or anything like it, would be the revival of the fear of negro domination in the South, and with it a violent and disastrous disturbance of the relations between the two races, which in the course of time, have shaped themselves in a friendly manner, highly advantageous to the general prosperity. In view of all this, I must confess that whatever specious pretences may be put forward as to the objects of the measure, I look upon the force bill as one of the most reckless, most cruel, most revolting partisan contrivances ever devised. I know the republicans are earnestly disclaiming that the force bill is an issue in this campaign. Mr. Harrison himself tries to evade it in his letter of acceptance by an artfully, soft spoken recommendation of a commission of inquiry. But no well-informed and prudent man will be deceived. The republican platform substantially endorses the measure."

As Rev. J. H. Bristow was on his way to Phil. Tuesday, the 11th inst., he discovered a lot of hogs eating something by the roadside. He got off his horse and to his horror found it to be an infant. He drove the hogs away and picked up what remained of it and carried it to Liberty. It turns out that a Miss Hogue had given birth to it and had thrown it to the hogs to be devoured by them, either to hide her shame or to rid herself of the responsibility of it. It is reported that the young lady came to Mr. James Spears, near Yosemite, that evening and staid all night, since which time she has not been heard of. It is not often that lynch law is resorted to in this county, but it is safe to say that, should she be caught, that it will be practiced upon her.

Woodie Dunlap, who at first thought he wanted to be republican elector-at-large from the State, has taken a second thought on the subject. Woodie discovered that he must either resign his gauership or his electorship, and, acting on the wise principle that a toot in the mouth is worth two or three in the future, he promptly swung on to the first and let the last go. Mr. Dunlap's discretion is to be admired; but when March 4th arrives Woodie will march forth just the same.—Glasgow Times.

SWAPPING THE DEVIL FOR THE WITCH—Halifax, N. S., sent to Sable Island, N. S., some time ago, a number of cats to destroy the rats, which were killing the rabbits. The cats, tired of destroying rats, played and havoc among the rabbits, and at last, becoming very numerous a number of foxes were sent to drive the cats out. The foxes not only killed the rabbits, but all the young birds. The fact has been brought to the notice of the government, with a view of having the foxes cleared off the island.

Ethel—Have you asked papa yet?

George—No, not yet.

Ethel—Why don't you?

George—I'm going to write to him; it seems more business-like to send in a sealed proposal.—New York Herald

According to the census report, the whole number of males in the United States in 1880 was 32,067,880, and the whole number of females 30,554,370. For the United States as a whole, therefore there are for every 100,000 males 95,280 females in 1880.

The street sweeper can no longer look for aid from the trailing skirts of the ladies. Dame fashion wills that skirts, for outdoor wear, shall barely touch the ground.
